Mr. Armenta,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2003, you pleaded guilty of one count of possession of a schedule II substance, and in 2005 of one count of manufacture of schedule II substance and one count of theft under $100 in Chaffee County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen, and took the initiative to start your own business. You got sober and changed the trajectory of your life. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as securing larger projects for your business. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

John W. Hickenlooper

Mr. Ashton,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2003, you pleaded guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit menacing in Arapahoe County, Colorado. In 2004, you pleaded guilty to one count of restraining order violation in Arapahoe County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen, and took the initiative to get your real estate license. You friends and family describe you as positive contributor to society who has grown to be a mature and motivated adult. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as furthering your career in real estate. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2004, you pleaded guilty to marijuana possession with intent to distribute (F-4) in Mesa County, Colorado.

It has been nearly 15 years since your conviction. Since then you have worked hard to build a life for yourself. Despite your best efforts, your criminal history has hindered your ability to obtain meaningful employment and live your life. I hope this pardon allows you to pursue your dreams without worrying about your past mistakes. I believe you have earned a second chance, and I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you. You will now have to make the most of this opportunity. It will come with challenges but I know you have it in you to succeed.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as pursuing a career in sociology or find a place of your own. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

Since completing your sentence, you have demonstrated your capacity to live a productive life. By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2000, you pleaded guilty to theft: less than $100 in Weld County, Colorado.

Since your conviction, you have worked to overcome the mistakes of your youth. You earned your bachelor's degree in Theatre Technology. You have worked for the Sacramento Theatre Company since 2005, and have obtained distinction in the field of entertainment electrics and theatre rigging. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as the chance to work for Cirque du Soleil in Las Vegas. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Ms. Churgin,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1995, you pleaded guilty of one count of forgery and one count theft less than $100 in Garfield County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen and mother. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle. Your friends and family describe you as truthful, honest, and trustworthy.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Mr. Keelin,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1974, you pleaded guilty to Theft in Routt County, Colorado.

More than 40 years ago, you were convicted of a crime. Since then, you have learned from your mistakes and made a life for yourself. However, this conviction is still preventing you from moving on from your past. I hope this pardon can help you with that. You will have to work hard and dedicate yourself, and you will likely encounter challenges along the way. I believe you have it in you to continue moving beyond past mistakes.

Since completing your sentence, you have demonstrated your capacity to live a productive life. By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Mr. Keller,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2003, you pleaded guilty to one count of third degree burglary in Jefferson County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen, and took the initiative to obtain training to become an HVAC technician. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as securing additional employment opportunities. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Mr. Nguyen,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1992, you pleaded guilty to one count of vehicular eluding and one count of aggravated robbery in Jefferson County, Colorado.

I believe you have earned a second chance, and I hope this pardon will create opportunity for you. Since your conviction, you have demonstrated your capacity to make good choices and have dedicated yourself to your community. I hope you are now able to pursue the path of your choosing without your criminal history hindering you.

You will now have to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication, and you will likely encounter challenges along the way. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

Good luck to you.

Mr. Piedra,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, your application stands out. You have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2004, you pleaded guilty to Possession of a Schedule V Controlled Substance in Adams County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living a positive and productive life. You have maintained steady employment as a carpenter, and serve as the primary financial supporter for your family, which includes your wife, you son, and your stepson. You are an active member of your church congregation. Your friends and family describe your strong work ethic and commitment to helping your family and your community. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as the ability to re-apply for lawful permanent residency in the United States. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1989, you pleaded nolo contendere to Possession of a Controlled Substance in Arapahoe County, Colorado.

Since then, you rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen, husband, and father. You have worked hard over the years to rebuild your life and the relationships. You took on leadership roles in your community, like being an honorary fireman. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Mr. Sumers,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1993, you pleaded guilty to one count of criminal attempt - theft of rental property in Arapahoe County, Colorado.

Since your conviction, you have lived a good life and made amends with those you harmed. It is not easy to take ownership of one's mistakes, but you have. I hope you are now able to pursue new opportunities without your criminal history hindering you. It will require hard work and dedication, and will involve many challenges along the way. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you and allow you to finish your career as a respiratory therapist at a Veterans Affairs facility. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Commutation of Sentence
Curtis A. Brooks

John W. Hickenlooper
Governor

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of Curtis A. Brooks.

I. Background

In 1997, Curtis A. Brooks, DOC Reg. No. 93003, was sentenced to life without the possibility of parole in the Department of Corrections for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run concurrently with his life sentence. Mr. Brooks was a juvenile at the time of the offense. Mr. Brooks currently has no parole eligibility date. The statute under which Mr. Brooks was sentenced is unconstitutional pursuant to Miller v. Alabama, 567 U.S. 460 (2012). The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this commutation is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

- A. Curtis A. Brooks be and hereby is granted a limited commutation such that he is granted parole effective July 1, 2019. Mr. Brooks shall remain on parole for five years. The other terms and conditions of Mr. Brooks' parole shall be set by the Parole Board, although Mr. Brooks shall be permitted to serve his parole period in Maryland if approved under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision. In this case, the Colorado Department of Corrections shall work with the Maryland Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services to manage the terms and conditions of Mr. Brooks' parole.
- B. This grant of clemency is limited to paroling Mr. Brooks for five years effective July 1, 2019, and shall not in any way affect the underlying criminal conviction.

Mr. Brooks,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a commutation. After learning about your case and your character, I am commuting your sentence by granting you parole effective July 1, 2019. You shall remain on parole for five years. If approved under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision, you shall be permitted to serve your parole period in Maryland.

As of the date of this letter, you have served approximately 21 years in prison. I decided to commute your sentence after a thorough evaluation of your clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding your incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe you deserve parole for several reasons.

At the time of your crime, you were 15 years old. You were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. The statute under which you were sentenced has since been deemed unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court in Miller v. Alabama, 567 U.S. 460 (2012). You were sentenced under a theory of felony murder: though you did not commit murder yourself, you received a sentence for first degree murder the same as if you had been the killer. In Colorado, we no longer give juveniles mandatory life sentences without the possibility of parole.

One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. While you have been incarcerated, you have earned your GED and enrolled in college correspondence courses. You have completed numerous educational programs and received positive work evaluations in your role as a custodian. The warden at Arkansas Valley Correctional Facility has noted that you have been a model offender for the past decade. Significantly, you have a strong support network that is prepared to assist you, including a Maryland State Senator and a United States Senator.

You are a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrate our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

You have demonstrated that you will respect society's laws and productively contribute to our society. You have taken full accountability for your actions and recognize the mistakes you made in the past. You are remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I believe you will be successful upon your release.

Clemency decisions are among the most difficult we have had to make in my time as Governor, weighing the values inherent in our justice system – retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation. We have reflected deeply on these values and the principles of justice, and see no purpose in continuing your confinement.

This commutation will change your future. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. I know you will be a positive example.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Commutation of Sentence Monir S. Wood

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of Monir S. Wood.

I. Background

In 1999, Monir S. Wood, DOC Reg. No. 104767, was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for life without the possibility of parole for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run concurrently with his life sentence. Mr. Wood currently has no parole eligibility date. Dear Members of the Colorado State Board of Parole:

I am writing this letter in support of Monir S. Wood, DOC #104767. After learning about his case and his character, I commuted Mr. Wood's sentence by granting him a parole eligibility date of July 1, 2028. The purpose of this commutation is two-fold: it will give Mr. Wood an opportunity to take advantage of programming that will prepare him for success in the world beyond DOC, and it will also give him time to show the community, including you – the members of the Parole Board – that he is ready for reentry into society.

I believe Mr. Wood is a worthy candidate for parole. I strongly encourage you to grant Mr. Wood the opportunity to reintegrate into our Colorado community.

As of the date of this letter, Mr. Wood has served approximately 19 years in prison. I decided to commute his sentence after a thorough evaluation of his clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding his incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe Mr. Wood deserves parole for several reasons.

At the time of his crime, Mr. Wood was 24 years old. He was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under a theory of felony murder. Though he did not commit murder himself, he received a sentence for first degree murder the same as if he had been the killer.

One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. While incarcerated, Mr. Wood has obtained his Associate of Arts degree from Liberty University, a Diploma in Theology from Beacon University, and a paralegal certification from CSU Pueblo. He is currently enrolled in college courses, pursuing a Business Finance degree at Ashworth College. He has done all of this even without the hope of a release date.

He has completed numerous rehabilitative programs. He serves as a core group member of the 7 Habits on the Inside program, and teaches bible and discipleship classes. He is an active participant in Defy Ventures, a rigorous offender reentry preparation program. Mr. Wood has been a model prisoner during his incarceration. Significantly, Mr. Wood has a strong support network in Colorado that is prepared to assist him when he is released from DOC.

Mr. Wood is a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrates our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Wood has demonstrated that he will respect Colorado's laws and productively contribute to our state and to our society. He has taken full accountability for his actions and recognizes the mistakes he made in the past. He is remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I urge you to release Mr. Wood.

Clemency decisions are among the most difficult we have had to make in my time as Governor, weighing the values inherent in our justice system – retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation. We have reflected deeply on these values and the principles of justice, and see no purpose in continuing to confine Mr. Wood after July 1, 2028.

Thank you for your important work.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of Brian L. Lee.

I. Background

In 1993, Brian L. Lee, DOC Reg. No. 81024, was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for life without the possibility of parole for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run consecutively with his life sentence. Mr. Lee currently has no parole eligibility date. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this commutation is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

- A. Brian L. Lee be and hereby is granted a limited commutation such that he shall be parole eligible on December 1, 2022.
- B. This grant of clemency is limited to making Mr. Lee parole eligible on December 1, 2022, and shall not in any way affect the underlying criminal sentence.

I am also commuting the sentences of William Lee and Eric Lightner, who were involved in the crime with Mr. Lee and also received sentences of life without the possibility of parole.

I believe Mr. Lee is a worthy candidate for parole. I strongly encourage you to grant Mr. Lee the opportunity to reintegrate into our Colorado community.

As of the date of this letter, Mr. Lee has served approximately 24 years in prison. I decided to commute his sentence after a thorough evaluation of his clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding his incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe Mr. Lee deserves parole for several reasons.

At the time of his crime, Mr. Lee was 22 years old. Mr. Lee was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. While incarcerated, Mr. Lee has been a member of the incentive program. He has completed 7 Habits on the Inside as well as Bridges to Life. In 2003, he was commended by DOC for the "selfless act" of assisting a DOC staff member in providing medical attention to an injured offender. He has done all of this even without the hope of a release date.

Like his brother William, Mr. Lee describes growing up in a neighborhood where he was surrounded by gangs, drugs and violence. He became a product of his environment, but since being incarcerated, has found faith and morality. He does everything he can to be a role model for other young men, and he desires to be an advocate against gangs, drugs, and illiteracy. He says that he wants to share what he has lost with others in order to deter them from making the wrong choices in life. Mr. Lee also has a supportive family who will assist him with his transition back into society upon release.

Mr. Lee is a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrates our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Lee has demonstrated that he will respect Colorado's laws and productively contribute to our state and to our society. He has taken full accountability for his actions and recognizes the mistakes he made in the past. He is remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I urge you to release Mr. Lee.

Clemency decisions are among the most difficult we have had to make in my time as Governor, weighing the values inherent in our justice system – retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation. We have reflected deeply on these values and the principles of justice, and see no purpose in continuing to confine Mr. Lee after December 1, 2022.

Thank you for your important work.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Commutation of Sentence William M. Lee

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of William M. Lee.

I. Background

In 1993, William M. Lee, DOC Reg. No. 80995, was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for life without the possibility of parole for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run consecutively with his life sentence. Mr. Lee currently has no parole eligibility date. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this commutation is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

- A. William M. Lee be and hereby is granted a limited commutation such that he shall be parole eligible on December 1, 2022.
- B. This grant of clemency is limited to making Mr. Lee parole eligible on December 1, 2022, and shall not in any way affect the underlying criminal sentence.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado this thirteenth day of December, 2018.

Dear Members of the Colorado State Board of Parole:

I am writing this letter in support of William M. Lee, DOC #80995. After learning about his case and his character, I commuted Mr. Lee's sentence by advancing his parole eligibility date to December 1, 2022. The purpose of this commutation is two-fold: it will give Mr. Lee an opportunity to take advantage of programming that will prepare him for success in the world beyond DOC, and it will also give him time to show the community, including you – the members of the Parole Board – that he is ready for reentry into society.

I am also commuting the sentences of Brian Lee and Eric Lightner, who were involved in the crime with Mr. Lee and also received sentences of life without the possibility of parole.

I believe Mr. Lee is a worthy candidate for parole. I strongly encourage you to grant Mr. Lee the opportunity to reintegrate into our Colorado community.

As of the date of this letter, Mr. Lee has served approximately 24 years in prison. I decided to commute his sentence after a thorough evaluation of his clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding his incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe Mr. Lee deserves parole for several reasons.

At the time of his crime, Mr. Lee was 18 years old. Mr. Lee was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. While incarcerated, he has received his GED and completed numerous programs, including 7 Habits on the Inside and Bridges to Life. He has worked in the maintenance shop since 2013 and has had almost 10 years of model behavior. He has done all of this even without the hope of a release date. Significantly, Mr. Lee has a supportive family who will assist him with his transition back into society upon release.

Mr. Lee has described how his perspective on the world has changed since he was 18 years old. His esteem for life, others, and himself has grown profoundly from where it was at the time of the crime. He acknowledges being influenced by the gang culture in his community, but he has left that behind and evolved into a different person.

Mr. Lee is a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrates our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Lee has demonstrated that he will respect Colorado's laws and productively contribute to our state and to our society. He has taken full accountability for his actions and recognizes the mistakes he made in the past. He is remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I urge you to release Mr. Lee.

Clemency decisions are among the most difficult we have had to make in my time as Governor, weighing the values inherent in our justice system – retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation. We have reflected deeply on these values and the principles of justice, and see no purpose in continuing to confine Mr. Lee after December 1, 2022.

Thank you for your important work.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Commutation of Sentence Eric A. Lightner

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of Eric A. Lightner.

I. Background

In 1993, Eric A. Lightner, DOC Reg. No. 81023, was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for life without the possibility of parole for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run consecutively with his life sentence. Mr. Lightner currently has no parole eligibility date. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this commutation is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

- A. Eric A. Lightner be and hereby is granted a limited commutation such that he shall be parole eligible on December 1, 2022.
- B. This grant of clemency is limited to making Mr. Lightner parole eligible on December 1, 2022, and shall not in any way affect the underlying criminal sentence.

Dear Members of the Colorado State Board of Parole:

I am writing this letter in support of Eric A. Lightner, DOC #81023. After learning about his case and his character, I commuted Mr. Lightner's sentence by advancing his parole eligibility date to December 1, 2022. The purpose of this commutation is two-fold: it will give Mr. Lightner an opportunity to take advantage of programming that will prepare him for success in the world beyond DOC, and it will also give him time to show the community, including you – the members of the Parole Board – that he is ready for reentry into society.

I am also commuting the sentences of Brian Lee and William Lee, brothers who were involved in the crime with Mr. Lightner and also received sentences of life without the possibility of parole.

I believe Mr. Lightner is a worthy candidate for parole. I strongly encourage you to grant Mr. Lightner the opportunity to reintegrate into our Colorado community.

As of the date of this letter, Mr. Lightner has served approximately 24 years in prison. I decided to commute his sentence after a thorough evaluation of his clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding his incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe Mr. Lightner deserves parole for several reasons.

At the time of his crime, Mr. Lightner was 21 years old. Mr. Lightner was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. Even without the hope of a release date, Mr. Lightner has strived to set a positive example for his peers. Upon reflection of his own actions that led him to be incarcerated, he has shared his story and his experience with young offenders in DOC to help set them on the right path. He has invested in his own growth and development, and through education and self-reflection, has "grown by leaps and bounds."

Mr. Lightner has been assigned to the Incentive Living Unit since 2009. He has worked as a recreational custodian for over 15 years. He has a near-perfect behavior record, with his last disciplinary violation occurring in 2001. This is almost 18 years of good behavior. He has completed numerous programs in DOC, including 7 Habits on the Inside and Bridges to Life. He has also taken educational classes in creative writing and small business management. Upon release, Mr. Lightner has family and friends who will support him and his transition back to society.

Mr. Lightner is a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrates our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Lightner has demonstrated that he will respect Colorado's laws and productively contribute to our state and to our society. He has taken full accountability for his actions and recognizes the mistakes he made in the past. He is remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I urge you to release Mr. Lightner.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Commutation of Sentence John E. Lopez

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order commuting the sentence of John E. Lopez.

I. Background

In 1998, John E. Lopez, DOC Reg. No. 83639, was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for life without the possibility of parole for first degree murder (F-1). He was sentenced to additional time in the Department of Corrections for other crimes, to run concurrently with his life sentence. Mr. Lopez currently has no parole eligibility date. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this commutation is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

- A. John E. Lopez be and hereby is granted a limited commutation such that he shall be parole eligible on December 1, 2026.
- B. This grant of clemency is limited to making Mr. Lopez parole eligible on December 1, 2026, and shall not in any way affect the underlying criminal sentence.

Dear Members of the Colorado State Board of Parole:

I am writing this letter in support of John E. Lopez, DOC #83639. After learning about his case and his character, I commuted Mr. Lopez's sentence by advancing his parole eligibility date to December 1, 2026. The purpose of this commutation is two-fold: it will give Mr. Lopez an opportunity to take advantage of programming that will prepare him for success in the world beyond DOC, and it will also give him time to show the community, including you – the members of the Parole Board – that he is ready for reentry into society.

I believe Mr. Lopez is a worthy candidate for parole. I strongly encourage you to grant Mr. Lopez the opportunity to reintegrate into our Colorado community.

As of the date of this letter, Mr. Lopez has served approximately 19 years in prison. I decided to commute his sentence after a thorough evaluation of his clemency application, as well as a thorough understanding of the facts and circumstances surrounding his incarceration. The crimes committed are serious. Nonetheless, I believe Mr. Lopez deserves parole for several reasons.

At the time of his crime, Mr. Lopez had just turned 18 years old. He was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole for the murder of his stepfather. Mr. Lopez and his family have described this situation as a "family tragedy." Mr. Lopez's mother, sister, and brother-in-law support his clemency application and have provided him with support since he entered DOC even in the face of their grief. They are committed to providing him with a home, and financial and emotional support upon his release.

One important aspect of each clemency decision is an examination of who the applicant is now, compared with who the applicant was at the time of the crime. While incarcerated, and even without the hope of a release date, Mr. Lopez has obtained several college degrees and is pursuing his PhD. He has held trusted positions, including working as a network administrator and a DMV customer service agent. This past August, he graduated from the Defy Ventures program. In almost 20 years in DOC, he has not a single disciplinary action on his record. The warden at Arkansas Valley Correctional Facility supports his commutation application, as does State Senator Dominick Moreno.

Mr. Lopez is a prime example of extraordinary rehabilitation and illustrates our hope for every offender who spends time in the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Lopez has demonstrated that he will respect Colorado's laws and productively contribute to our state and to our society. He has taken full accountability for his actions and recognizes the mistakes he made in the past. He is remorseful, and ready to advance to a new phase of life. I urge you to release Mr. Lopez.

Clemency decisions are among the most difficult we have had to make in my time as Governor, weighing the values inherent in our justice system – retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation. We have reflected deeply on these values and the principles of justice, and see no purpose in continuing to confine Mr. Lopez after December 1, 2026.

Thank you for your important work.
